ACTIVITIES DETAILS

A. AWARENESS ABOUT THE HEALTHY LIFE.

It is a blessing if a person is born with no health issues. Yet, no one should take advantage of being healthy and be overconfident. Being healthy is about having good physical health and being mentally and socially fit. A healthy person can be more focused and more determined and can lead a happy life. If we look into human history, the biggest asset to human beings is good health and a healthy mind. Good health and a calm mind are interrelated, which helps individuals grow intellectually and make them wealthy. A person with poor mental health is unable to sustain physical strength and stamina. Only a stress-free mind and a positive mindset may contribute to good physical health. This combination allows us to recognise and experience the actual eternal happiness that comes from the inside. We're told as children that leading a healthy lifestyle can lead to the best health. However, only as we get older do we realise that introspection, self-awareness, and reflection of one's own ideas are all essential aspects of sustaining excellent mental health, which may lead to a fit and lovely physique. When this method is missing, it might lead to a depressing thought process in which one fails to realise what is bothering them and what they are missing in particular. As a result, maintaining good health is critical for the general development of our personality and outlook on life. Our organization always try to aware people about their health and a good healthy lifestyle.

B. Vocational Training Programme

ANNUAL REPORT 2023-24

Vocational training focuses on developing technical skills for a specific job or trade. It offers you practical knowledge in contrast to theoretical knowledge offered by the conventional formal education system. Understanding different vocational training options can help you choose the right one for your career growth and development.

under this campaign, our organization provides skill development training to unemployed youth: short technical courses in computer software and hardware education, English-language proficiency, and personality development for preparation of interviews at good companies. We provide stitching—embroidery and beautician training—for girls' youth to help them become self-sufficient and develop their economic situation. In rural areas, it is the most needed activity because, due to a lack of awareness, many youths just complete their regular studies, and in today's time, that's not enough to get a good career opportunity, In the market, there is a high demand for skilled youth, and rural youth have to face a lack of resources, so our initiative provides them with vocational training every year by trained and professional faculties.

C. Distributing More Than 100 Educational Kits

Mission Education is a national level programme of AAI BAHUUDDESHIYA SAMAJIK SANSTHA , an NGO for education which is committed to providing basic education and healthcare to underprivileged children. AAI BAHUUDDESHIYA SAMAJIK SANSTHA , an NGO for poor child education believes that whether you are addressing healthcare, poverty, population control, unemployment or human rights, there's no better place to start than in the corridors of education. We distributed more than 100 books , bags , pens , pencil and educational kits. Education is both the means as well as the end to a better life means, because it empowers an individual to earn his/her livelihood and the end because it increases one's awareness on a range of issues – from healthcare to appropriate social behavior to understanding one's rights, and in the process evolve as a better citizen.

D.Environment Awareness Programme (PRAYAVARAN DIWAS)

The present-day agriculture is more of mono-culturing mind. The available subsidy is only for the cost intensive external inputs like chemical based fertilizer, pesticides that have made the farming system as less diversified. This is resulted in loss of fertility of the soil, reduction in the concentration of microorganism, death of natural enemies, and resurgence of pests and outbreak of diseases that has made the eco-system more vulnerable to externalities. The irreversible damage which is caused in the eco – system is manmade, and the chemical agriculture is fully depending on external inputs and productivity oriented. Reviving organic farming is need of the hour and a holistic approach has to be evolved with the objective of attaining the sustainability in agriculture through organic way of farming. Mobilizing the small and marginal farming community, strengthening the internalized input resources which includes Biomass production, organic manure utilization, and establishment of community seed banks in villages, backward and forward linkages to the organic produce are the key elements which are going to decide the future of Organic agriculture. Plantation is very important for our earth , and we are trying to plant tree as muc as wecan.

E. Baba saheb Ambedkar jayanti and blood donation camp

On The Occasion of baba saheb ambedkar jayanti we decided to donate blood to someone needy, As we all know by now, blood donation has a lot of benefits. Why a person requires blood has various reasons. It may be an illness or also an accident, nonetheless, it is important. The blood that we donate helps a person in need. It enhances their health condition and makes them overcome their critical situation. In other words, blood donation does not simply help that specific person but also contributes to a responsible gesture towards society. Moreover, it also enhances the health of the donor. As the cell depletion allows a way for production, not new cells that freshen our body system. Furthermore, it also revitalizes our body for better health. Next up, a single blood donation helps at least three people in need. Thus, imagine how one donation can make a difference in so many people's lives.

Cultural Development Programme

The Adivasi are the indigenous tribes of the Indian subcontinent. People from these tribes live as foragers or as tribalistic sedentary communities, primarily in India. The term also refers to ethnic minorities in the neighboring countries of Bangladesh, Nepal, and Sri Lanka. But India does not recognize tribes as indigenous people. These tribes are considered to be the original inhabitants of India, before the Dravidian and Indo-Aryan people. However, many present-day Adivasi communities were formed after the decline of the Indus Valley Civilization. Although the Adivasis are considered socially and economically backward, they often enjoyed autonomy and evolved mixed hunter-gatherer and farming economies in ancient and medieval India. In some areas, securing Adivasi approval and support was considered important by local rulers. Larger Adivasi groups sustained their kingdoms in central India. The Meenas and Gond Rajas of Garha-Mandla and Chanda formed a kind of Adivasi aristocracy. These relations soured during the Mughal rule in India, where many of them were killed in wars between the two tribes.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION FOR EMPOWERING YOUTH

Technical education is instrumental in making remarkable contribution to nation development through creating skilled manpower, enhancing productivity, and improving quality of life. The main objective of technical education is to prepare individual for employment and business through skill and knowledge acquisition. In present scenario of science and technology, production of skilled and knowledgeable manpower according to the needs of society and industry is the need of hour. The rapid industrialisation of any country is due to acquisition of technical education.

Animal Welfare Programme

Animal welfare is about taking care of animals properly, and it's important because animals play a vital role in our ecosystem. For example, some animals help with the carbon and nitrogen cycle, and others help bring nutrients out of the cycle. Animal welfare is about how humans should properly care for animals, while animal rights is about the idea that animals should have similar rights to humans. We can protect animals by adopting them. Further, one can also volunteer if one does not have the means to help. Moreover, donating to wildlife reserves can help. Most importantly, we must start buying responsibly to avoid companies which harm animals to make their products. All animals play an important role in the ecosystem. Some of them help to bring out the nutrients from the cycle whereas the others help in decomposition, carbon, and nitrogen cycle. In other words, all kinds of animals, insects, and even microorganisms play a role in the ecosystem.
